ANNOUNCEMENT ON 2012-2013 ACADEMIC YEAR JEAN MONNET SCHOLARSHIPS

Information on the purpose, scope, duration, implementation of the scholarship, number of the scholars to be awarded, validity of the scholarship in terms of academic year, amount of the scholarship, placement of the scholars to the relevant programmes, eligible applicants, ineligible applicants, application documents, important notes for applicants, application method, assessment period and schedule of exams and checklists for application are given below. The mentioned conditions are defined for 2012-2013 academic year, for this reason previous implementations do not set a precedent.

Purpose of the scholarship

Within the framework of Turkey's negotiation process for full membership to the EU, Jean Monnet Scholarship Programme, a project funded by the European Union (EU), aims to increase the number of experts in the EU field and support Turkey's administrative capacity building efforts for the effective implementation of the EU acquis. Therefore, the scholarship programme, differing from other graduate scholarships, does not support the academic studies in any field but it supports academic studies to be done in accordance with the mentioned purpose of the scholarship.

It is expected that the scholars upon the end of the academic studies would return to Turkey in order to work in the relevant field of study.

Scope of the scholarship

The Jean Monnet Scholarships Programme supports academic study at graduate or research level at a university or similar institution in one of the EU member states. In other words, scholarships will be granted exclusively for academic studies at graduate or research level directly related to Turkey's EU harmonisation process and the EU acquis.

Therefore, unlike other graduate scholarships, these scholarships will be awarded only in the below listed acquis chapters:

Applicants are required to choose only one of the EU acquis chapters given above as “field of study” in the application form. Change in the field of study chosen is not possible. Field of study other than the ones given above will not be supported. For instance; MBA programme is not eligible in the scope of the Jean Monnet Scholarship Programme. Field of study chosen and programme applied should be in line with the purpose of the scholarship section given above.

It is recommended to visit the web sites of the Ministry for EU Affairs (www.ab.gov.tr) and the Delegation of the European Union to Turkey (www.avrupa.info.tr) for detailed information on the content of these EU acquis chapters.

Duration of the scholarship

Only academic studies at graduate or research level at a university or similar institution in one of the EU member states for periods of minimum 3 (three), maximum 12 (twelve) months will be supported. In consequence, the duration of the scholarship is at least 3 months and at most 12 months. Academic studies longer than 12 months duration will not be funded even if the scholars are willing to fund the remaining period.

The end date of the academic study should not exceed October 31st, 2013.

Implementation of the scholarship

Main beneficiary of the Jean Monnet Scholarship Programme funded by the EU is the Ministry for EU Affairs. The scholarship programme is implemented in collaboration with the Central Finance and Contracts Unit and the Delegation of the European Union to Turkey, with the support of Jean Monnet Technical Assistance Team. The Jean Monnet Joint Committee composed of the representatives from the mentioned institutions is responsible for taking decisions for the effective implementation of the programme each year.

The contracting authority of the programme is the Central Finance and Contracts Unit.

Number of scholars to be awarded

It is aimed that approximately 100 scholarships will be granted for 2012-2013 academic year. 60% of the scholarship will be allocated to the public sector, 30% to the universities and 10% to the private sector. Therefore, scholarships will be granted on sectoral quota basis to the applicants scoring at least 60 over 100 points from both the written and the oral exam. As the case may be, the Jean Monnet Evaluation Committee could shift the quotas allocated to the sectors.

Validity of the scholarship in terms of academic year

Scholarships should be used in that specific academic year. Postponement and/or extension of the scholarships is not possible.

Amount of the scholarship

The Jean Monnet Joint Committee calculates the amount of the scholarship as well as the tuition fee which is a part of the scholarship, for each academic year in order to offer a minimum living standard by taking opinions of the relevant parties in the concerned countries.

Amount of the scholarship covers the tuition fee, living expenses (food&drink, accomodation), fixed amount for various allowances (travel, books, thesis, visa, study visit, health, foreign currency loss for countries outside the Eurozone, registration to local authorities, any tax liabilities etc.) and bank transfer costs.

The Jean Monnet scholarship is calculated as to cover solely the expenses of the scholars. For this reason, there is no extra allowance for the scholars who will be going with their families.

The scholars who could not successfully complete their academic study /research or who could not fulfill his/her contractual obligations will be requested to pay back whole or partial amount of the scholarship they have been paid.

Placement of the scholars to the relevant programmes

Jean Monnet Scholarship Programme covers all accredited universities and similar institutions in the EU Member States. Applicants are totally free to choose the EU member state and the university or similar institution by themselves. However, the prestige of the university or similar institution matters for the Jean Monnet Scholarship Programme. In addition, the programme chosen by the applicant should be in line with the field of study and the EU official language indicated in the application form. Applicants could apply for any programme in the context given above. Besides, the Jean Monnet Evaluation Committee shall retain the right to give the final decision on the placement of the scholars, as to ensure the equal distribution of the scholars in the EU Member States and the accordance of the programmes with the fields of study.

It is expected that the scholars to be awarded should contact and apply for the programmes in the universities or similar institutions, related with their field of study, as to submit their offer letter to the Jean Monnet Technical Assistance Team. However, taking into consideration that the many universities or similar institutions in the EU Member States have different quotas and application deadlines, the applicants who applied for the scholarship and whose process is going on are kindly requested to apply and get conditional or unconditional offer letter from the relevant universities or similar institutions, before the announcement of the scholars to be awarded.

Applicants do not necessarily have to go to an EU Member State where the official language is same with the EU official language that the applicants indicated in the application form. It is possible to study or conduct research at a university or similar institution where the teaching or research language is same with the EU official language that the applicant indicated in the application form. For instance; in the case where the applicant is awarded with the scholarship, the applicant who indicated French as a foreign language in the application form may for sure study or conduct research at a university or similar institution in Belgium, where the teaching or research language is French.
