

SCREENING CHAPTER 12
FOOD SAFETY, VETERINARY AND PHYTOSANITARY POLICIES

AGENDA ITEM 16: VETERINARY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

Country Session: Republic of Turkey
24-28 April 2006

CONTENTS

- I. MULTILATERAL AGREEMENTS
- II. BILATERAL AGREEMENTS

I. MULTILATERAL AGREEMENTS

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Turkey is a member of the following international organizations:

- FAO
- The European Commission
- The World Bank
- OECD
- OIE
- WVA
- FVE
- IAEA
- WHO (Codex Alimentarius)
- EUFGMD
- CIHEAM
- CGIAR

CONVENTION

- European Convention for the Protection of Animals during International Transport
 - ✓ signed by Turkey on 04 Feb. 2004
 - ✓ it has not yet been ratified by the Parliament

II. BILATERAL AGREEMENTS

A. BILATERAL AGREEMENTS (1)

No	Country	Date of agreement
1	GERMANY	18 March 1997
2	ARGENTINA	28 March 2005
3	ALBANIA	3 August 1995
4	BELARUS	2 March 2005
5	BULGARIA	6 July 1994
6	ALGERIA	15 May 1998
7	CZECH REPUBLIC	10 October 2000
8	MOROCCO	30 March 2005
9	CROATIA	10 February 1999
10	THE NETHERLANDS	24 May 1995

A. BILATERAL AGREEMENTS (2)

No	Country	Date of agreement
11	ISRAEL	3 December 1997
12	CUBA	5 November 2003
13	MACEDONIA	2 October 1998
14	MOLDOVIA	7 June 2003
15	POLAND	22 March 1995
16	ROMANIA	30 April 1997
17	SYRIA	3 July 1993
18	TUNISIA	5 May 1998
19	GREECE	1 November 2001
20	AZERBAIJAN	30 June 2005

A. BILATERAL AGREEMENTS (3)

No	Country	Date of agreement
21	IRAN	25 April 2005
22	IRAQ	25 May 1971
23	KAZAKHSTAN	15 August 1995
24	LIBYA	16 August 1978
25	HUNGARY	5 September 2000
26	EGYPT	4 October 1993
27	MONGOLIA	16 March 1998
28	RUSSIAN FEDERATION	5 November 1999
29	UKRAINE	27 November 1996

GENERAL FRAMEWORK OF THE VETERINARY FIELD AGREEMENTS

Objective

➤ To facilitate the circulation of animals and products of animal origin and, at the same time to prevent the introduction of transmissible animal diseases and unsafe products of animal origin, as well as to develop the cooperation in the veterinary field.

General Content

- Conditions relevant to importation and transit of animals and products of animal origin and the joint protocols to be drawn up,
- Cooperation and notification in case of a outbreak of the list A transmissible animal disease of the OIE,
- Certification of animal health status and importation,
- Cooperation in the field of veterinary research and development,

General Content

- Sharing the expenditures arising from the agreement,
- Establishment of the commission to resolve the possible conflicts relevant to the agreement,
- The clause relevant to probable amendments to agreement provisions,
- The clause reflecting contracting parties of the agreement,
- Exemption from the responsibilities and rights arising from other international agreements,
- The clause of denunciation,

TECHNICAL, SCIENTIFIC AND ECONOMIC COOPERATION AGREEMENTS

- USA
- AFGHANISTAN
- GERMANY
- ALBANIA
- AZERBAIJAN
- BULGARIA
- CZECH REPUBLIC
- CHINA
- INDONESIA
- PALESTINE
- FRANCE
- GEORGIA
- CROATIA
- LIBYA
- LEBANON
- HUNGARY
- MACEDONIA
- EGYPT
- MOLDOVA
- MONGOLIA
- OMAN
- UZBEKISTAN
- PAKISTAN
- POLAND
- ROMANIA
- SOMALIA
- SUDAN
- INDIA
- NETHERLANDS
- IRAQ

- IRAN
- ISRAEL
- ITALY
- CANADA
- KAZAKHSTAN
- KYRGYZSTAN
- CUBA
- TURKISH REPUBLIC OF NORTHERN CYPRUS
- SYRIA
- TUNISIA
- TURKMENISTAN
- UKRAINE
- JORDAN
- VIETNAM
- NEW ZEALAND
- GREECE

TECHNICAL, SCIENTIFIC AND ECONOMIC COOPERATION AGREEMENTS

Objective

To consider the favorably developing intergovernmental relations aiming to strengthen and expand the cooperation between the two countries and for the development of the cooperation in the fields of Agriculture/plant production, plant protection, animal husbandry and breeding, animal health, food industry and rural affairs.

General Content

The agreement embody as follows;

- Exchange of scientific and technical information and documentation,
- Exchange of research results published within respective institutions,
- Exchange of genetic and biological material both from plants and animals,
- Reciprocal exchange of experts in the fields of both countries,

- Organization of training seminars, conferences and meetings, either of both countries,
- Exchange of information on irrigation and irrigation systems,
- Establishments of direct joint activities between the respective institutions,
- Encouragement of joint ventures of collaboration between private sector parties for, agricultural marketing both in two countries and in other markets.

SCREENING CHAPTER 12
FOOD SAFETY, VETERINARY AND PHYTOSANITARY POLICIES
AGENDA ITEM 16: VETERINARY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION