

Intra-Community trade
Live animals
European Community legislation
Main elements

Susanne Ammendrup
European Commission, Directorate General for Health and Consumer Protection,
D1: Animal Health and Standing Committees

Screening HR and TR, Brussels, 10 March 2006

Trade in live animals

- Only live animals that fulfil the EU requirements to be sent to Member States
- Separation of animals of different health status during transport from origin to destination
- Procedures for health certificates
- Assembly centres, transporters, dealers

Animal health conditions

- Bovine animals and swine 64/432/EEC
- Ovine and caprine animals 91/68/EEC
- Equidae 90/426/EEC
- Aquaculture animals 91/67/EEC
- Poultry and Hatching eggs 90/539/EEC
- Embryos of bovine animals 89/556/EEC
- Semen of bovine animals 88/407/EEC
- Semen of porcine animals 90/429/EEC
- Other animals, semen, ova and embryos 92/65/EEC

Animal disease status

- Commission Decision 2003/467/EC
Brucellosis, tuberculosis, enzootic-bovine-leucosis-free status – bovine herds
- Commission Decision 93/52/EEC
Ovine and caprine brucellosis (B. melitensis)
- Commission Decision 2002/300/EC
Bonamia ostreae and or Martella refringens
- Commission Decision 2002/308/EC
VHS and IHN

Additional guarantees

- Council Directive 64/432/EEC:
  - Aujeszky's disease – Commission Decision 2001/618/EC
  - IBR - Commission Decision 2004/558/EC
  - Transmissible Gastroenteritis (TGE)
  - Brucella suis infections
- Council Directive 91/68/EEC:
  - Contagious agalactia
- Council Directive 90/539/EEC:
  - Salmonella - Commission Decisions 2003/644/EC and 2004/235/EC

Lists of entities approved by MS

- Commission Decision 2001/106/EC
  - Assembly centres
    - Council Directives 64/432/EEC, 90/426/EEC, 91/68/EEC
  - Semen collection and storage centres
    - Council Directives 88/407/EEC and 90/429/EEC
  - Embryo collection teams
    - Council Directive 89/556/EEC
  - Bird quarantine facilities or centres
    - Council Directive 92/65/EEC