At the Summit, Turkey presented important proposals, which are summarized below, with a humanitarian point of view regarding the cooperation with the EU in order to prevent the loss of lives in the Aegean Sea.

The purpose of the proposed plan is realization of the fact that it is not possible to reach the EU countries through irregular migration via the Aegean Sea and that despite all the risks, the migrant will be sent back to Turkey. In this way, the irregular migrant flows would be stopped.

Turkey's proposals discussed in the 7 March Summit and after the Summit, all of Turkey's proposals were mentioned in the statement by the EU.

According to these proposals,

- All new irregular migrants crossing from Turkey into Greek islands as from 20 March 2016 will be returned to Turkey.
 - For every Syrian being returned to Turkey from Greek islands, another Syrian will be resettled from Turkey to the EU.
 - One-to-one formula is a temporary and extraordinary application aiming at stopping the deaths which have taken place in the Aegean Sea and reestablishing the public order.

Should these arrangements not meet the objective of ending the irregular migration and the number of returns come close to the numbers provided for above, this mechanism will be reviewed. Should the number of returns exceed the numbers provided for above, this mechanism will be discontinued. Once irregular crossings between Turkey and the EU are ending or at least have been substantially and sustainably reduced, a Voluntary Humanitarian Admission Scheme will be activated. EU Member States will contribute on a voluntary basis to this scheme.
